Reports from societies continued. Each society was urged to send money to Mr. A. W. Crawford for Albemarle Fund, and be sure to mark it "For Albemarle Fund."

Suggestion was made by Mr. Allen that each society have a budget for the coming year and, if possible, add 20 per cent to the past year.

Reports from the following secretaries of Causes were heard:

Mrs. S. N. Harrell, Secretary Literature.

Mrs. W. W. Faison, Secretary Foreign Missions.

Miss Mary E. Dodson, Secretary Assembly's Home Missions.

Mrs. J. W. Thackston, Secretary S. P. and C. Home Missions.

Friday, 9:30 A. M.

Mrs. George Ramsey conducted devotional exercises, her subject being "The Law of God."

The President read a letter of greetings from Mrs. W. B. Ramsey, President of Synodical Auxiliary, urging the Presbyterial Auxiliary to send delegates to the Woman's Convention in Atlanta.

Miss Graham gave an interesting talk on the Young People's Conference, and urged that at least two be sent by each society.

Mrs. J. A. Green made her report on Young People's work.

Mrs. Baker read a resolution on forming a separate Young People's organization. This was discussed by the Auxiliary, but no action taken.

Mrs. Green urged the support of the Scholarship Fund for Barium Springs graduates.

Miss Jean McAlpine made a talk on Mission Study Class, and gave a synopsis of the book on China, recommended for study next year.

Miss Mabel Hall spoke on Assembly's Home Missions and made a plea that better homes be provided our Home Mission workers in the mountains.

Friday Afternoon

The devotional was led by Mrs. Baker.

Miss McAlpine made a talk on "The Training School."

Mrs. George Howard suggested that the Presbyterial Auxiliary send one girl to the Training School. After discussion, it was moved and carried that the Auxiliary adopt Miss McAlpine and pay her expenses at the school next year.

The Auxiliary then discussed sending a colored woman to the Conference at Tuscaloosa. As no one had a suitable woman to suggest, motion was deferred and the delegates were asked to discuss this question with their societies and be prepared at the next meeting to suggest some one.

The name suggested as suitable for the new building at Barium Springs was "Woman's Building."

The Treasurer stated that owing to increase in cost of printing, etc., the contingent fee was not sufficient to meet all expenses. By unanimous vote, it was decided to increase the Presbyterial fee to 20 cents, making fee for Presbyterial and Synodical 25 cents per member.

The Littleton Aid Society joined the Presbyterial Auxiliary.

The report of the Hospitality Committee was accepted.

The report of the Nominating Committee was accepted and the following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. J. M. Baker (one year).

PROCEEDINGS

The opening meeting of Albemarle Presbyterial was held Monday evening in the Presbyterian Church. Prayer and welcome by the pastor, Rev. G. B. Hanrahan; a vocal solo and introduction of Miss Angevine, of The New York Bible School. For forty-five minutes she held the undivided attention of every one present, and gave a wonderful study from the Gospel according to Mark.

Dr. Buchanan of Japan was presented and made a most interesting address on Foreign Missions, and appealed for an increase of interest.

At 10:00 p. m. the meeting adjourned for a social at the hospitable home of Mrs. J. H. Parham.

TUESDAY 9:30 A. M.

Albemarle Presbyterial was officially called to order by the President, Mrs. J. M. Baker.

Mr. Buchanan was given ten minutes to present the work and needs of his field, devotionals followed, led by the President.

Minutes of the last meeting in Roanoke Rapids were read and approved.

Report of the Secretary-Treasurer read and approved.

The societies reaching the Standard of Excellence are as follows: Greenville, Henderson, Oxford R. F. D. No. 4, Raleigh-Woman's Auxiliary.

Five Auxiliaries on the Foreign Mission Honor Roll—Goldsboro, Henderson, New Bern, Oxford and Raleigh-Woman's Auxiliary.

Mrs. H. H. Grainger, of Kinston, was elected Recording Secretary.

The Address of Welcome was given by Miss Mary Dodson.

Response by Mrs. S. K. Phillips, of Greenville.

The enrollment of delegates showed 26 delegates, 5 officers and 18 visitors, a small increase over last year.

President appointed the following committees:

Hospitality Committee—Mrs. H. L. Hicks, Miss Lizzie Watkins, and Miss Evelyn Howell.

NcU

Nominating Committee—Mrs. B. R. Lacy, Mrs. J. H. Parham and Mrs. C. C. Vines.

Miss Davis, of Peace Institute, brought greetings and regrets from Miss Mary Graham.

Reports from the auxiliaries showed some increase with Tarboro leading in totals and Oxford in per capita.

Miss Angevine led the closing devotionals with another study from the 2nd and 3rd chapters of Mark, after which we adjourned to lunch with Mrs. H. E. Shaw at her home on Liberty Hill.

Tuesday 2:30 P. M.

Afternoon session opened with prayer by Mrs. Lacy.

Minutes of the morning session read and approved.

Reports from the auxiliaries continued.

Mrs. George Howard, Synodical Secretary for Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, asked that we adopt another student or two for the Assembly's Training School in Richmond. The name of Miss Gertrude Pearce, of Rocky Mount, was suggested—tabled as new business.

The Treasurer urged that the delegates impress their auxiliaries with the need of the full payment of the Contingent Fee. The President then explained the necessity for this, our only means for financing the Presbyterial, and asked that they meet this obligation from the local treasuries.

Motion was made and carried that every auxiliary report every member and pay Contingent Fee in full.

Mrs. Lacy, for the Synodical Committee on Finance, brought a recommendation that the Synodical Fee be increased to 10c per member, 5c of this to be held as an Equalization Fund from which the weaker Presbyterials can draw for expense.

This recommendation was moved, seconded and carried.

Reports showed that only six Auxiliaries in Albemarle had contributed to the funds for the African Homes. Mrs. Butler, of Goldsboro, made a plea for our hearty support of this fund.

Miss Dodson, Secretary of Assembly's Home Missions, gave her report and recommended as a study book, "The Church and Community."

Mrs. Thackston, Secretary of S. P. and C. Home Missions, reported an increase of interest, and $150.00 as Albemarle's apportionment for Mr. Cranes' salary. She was instructed to apportion same to auxiliaries and notify each of their amount.

Mrs. W. T. Clark, Secretary of Orphanage Work, reported $2,200.00 paid towards the equipment at Barium Springs and $900.00 needed. Mrs. Baker urged our support to this call. The new building to be named "The Lottie Walker Memorial Building" in memory of the Superintendent's wife.

Miss Angevine gave her third study from the Gospel of Mark.

Tuesday 8:00 P. M.

Special music, address on "Efficiency" by Miss McElwee, and Miss Angevine's last study from the 11th chapter of Mark.

Wednesday 10:30 A. M.

The burning of the Church a few minutes before time to open the morning session delayed our assembling until 10:30, when the Baptist Church nearby became our hosts.

Minutes of Tuesday's meeting read and approved.

The Presbyterial voted to adopt only one girl at the Training School, the selection to be left to Mrs. George Howard.

Report from Mrs. J. H. Harrison, Secretary Literature, was read, also her resignation, the latter accepted.

Mrs. Lacy's report of the Synodical showed that Albemarle stood first in gifts, second in membership and fourth in Survey subscribers.

The importance of using Surveys and Prayer Callendars was discussed at length.

Mrs. J. A. Green, Secretary of Young People's Work, gave her report.

Miss McElwee, Synodical Secretary for Young People's Work, gave an interesting talk on this work.

After sentence prayers the session adjourned for lunch in the Baptist Church.
